

Abruzzo Experience

Lunch on a Trabocco

10th October 2026

€ 110,00

Program

8:00 departure from L'Aquila (Meridiana Square)

11:00 visit to the splendid Romanesque Abbey of San Giovanni in Venere, which in ancient times stood on the site of a temple dedicated to the goddess Venus Conciliatrix. The vast temple complex featured a large portico and a majestic ceremonial staircase. Between 529 and 543, disciples from Montecassino came here to establish a Benedictine monastery. The statue of Venus was destroyed, the deteriorating temple was demolished, and a first modest Christian church dedicated to the Virgin Mary and Saint John the Baptist was built on its ruins, along with a simple dwelling for the monks

12:00 fishing experience and lunch on a Trabocco, ancient wooden fishing machine still working transformed into a typical restaurant to enjoy authentic abruzzese meal based on daily fresh fish and local wine!

16:00 arrival and guided tour of Lanciano, a pilgrimage destination due to the Eucharistic Miracle and a city of ancient Frentan origins. A stroll through the historic old town, which preserves monumental palaces, the residences of merchant families, and ancient churches, including the Sanctuary and the Cathedral. Don't miss the traditional bocconotti pastries!
