Ceramics of Castelli

12th August 2026

€ 120,00

Program

9:00 departure for Castelli and walk in the village perched on a spur eroded by time and by the waters of the rushing streams that descend from the mountains and optional visit to the ceramics museum, located in the ancient Franciscan convent of the order of the Observant Minors dating back to the mid-sixteenth century. In the museum you can take a guided tour to see the old clay settling tanks, the crushing and making of malleable clay, the various techniques of shaping, glazing and decorating the object and the reproduction of the ancient kiln for firing the ceramic artifact called "Breath Oven". The first floor store the works from 1400 to 1900 in chronological order. Visit to the Church of San Donato, which in 1963 was defined by the writer Carlo Levi as the Sistine Chapel of Majolica because of the ceiling entirely made up of tiles decorated with majolica in about 1000 (currently 800) specimens dating back to about 1615-1617
